It was a little windy at the January campout at Poche's, but the temperature was great and we enjoyed everything. We had a decent turnout – glad to see that Charles and Bonnie Hebert were able to make it.

The chili dump was a success – thanks to all that contributed. One of my favorites was the desserts.

Clarence, Cal and Louis prepared breakfast Saturday morning. Biscuits, gravy and sausage!

It was curtains for the fishermen. They did not catch anything. The wind was blowing the whole time we were there and that may have had something to do with the fish biting. I take that back Charles & Bonnie's grandson caught a small bass Saturday.

This is Leap Year. Guess that is great for those that were born on February 29th.

Also Groundhog Day, President's Day, Valentine's Day and Mardi Gras!

February is also birth month for Louis, Sharon & Charlie Haynes. Adding to that are wedding anniversaries for Louis & Eva and Clarence & Jessie.

Our February campout will be at Natkatosh RV Park near Natchitoches starting on the 16th.

Our evening meal will be pot luck, so bring your favorite dish. If you have any questions about the meal call Charlie Haynes.

Be sure to call Clarence Filipi at 318 664-1598 to let him know whether you are going or not going.

If you want to wear your best Mardi Gras outfit feel free to do so.

KRISPY KREME BREAD PUDDING WITH RUM SAUCE

24 Krispy Kreme glazed doughnuts

One 14-ounce can sweetened condensed milk

One 14.5-ounce can fruit cocktail, with juice

2 eggs, beaten

One 9-ounce box (1 1/2 cups) raisins

Pinch of salt

1 teaspoon ground cinnamon

BUTTER-RUM SAUCE

1/2 cup (1 stick) butter

3 cups sifted confectioners' sugar

2 tablespoons white rum

1. Preheat the oven to 350°E Spray a 13 by 9 inch glass dish with vegetable oil cooking spray.

2. In a very large bowl, tear or cut the doughnuts into 1-inch cubes. In another bowl, combine the condensed milk, fruit cocktail, eggs, raisins, salt, and cinnamon. Pour the mixture over the doughnuts and stir to combine. Allow the doughnuts to soak for 15 minutes. Pour the doughnut mixture into the prepared dish and press down with the back of a spoon to remove any air pockets.

3. Bake the pudding for 1 hour, until the center is firm.

4. To make the butter-rum sauce: Melt the butter in a 1-quart saucepan over low heat. Slowly stir in the sugar. Add the rum. Remove from the heat and well. Serve the warm sauce with the warm pudding (serves 12 to 16)

Note: You can buy doughnuts from the day-old bread store to cut down on the cost.
